

CPC Annual Congregational Meeting – June 26, 2022 – 4:00PM

Candidates for Elder (Class of 2025)

MATT BELL

Matt and his wife, Linda, have been members of CPC since 1986. They have three upstanding children. Matt became a believer through his youth group at First Covenant Church in Oakland. Since then, he has been involved in various capacities at CPC and in Young Life as a leader and now as a Region Committee member. He has served as a deacon, elder, and nominating committee member at CPC and has been on the CPC Personnel Committee for the last 10 years. He recently retired as the principal at Pacific Grove High School.

JUN MABUL

Jun migrated here from the Philippines in 2008. He is married to Armi, whom he met in their local church during the 1990s, and are blessed with two wonderful children, the oldest just recently graduating from UCLA. Both Jun and Armi surrendered their lives to the Lord during college. They were both active in church ministries during and after graduation, with Jun being involved in teaching and discipleship, and Armi in worship leading. They started attending CPC late in 2020 and are both blessed with the church.

LINDA MASTEN

By His wonderful Grace, Linda and her husband, Ric, recently celebrated 60 years of marriage. They have been attending CPC for 25 years. Until the Lord makes it clear to her that it is time to retire, Linda is still practicing as a lawyer and as a CPA. She has previously served as the Stated Clerk of the Bluewater Presbytery and as an elder and Clerk of Session for CPC. She currently serves on the Finance Committee, the board of Legacy, and as a member of the Traditional Worship Committee. One of her greatest joys is singing praises to our Lord as a member of the CPC choir.

GREG OGDEN (Returning)

Greg is a “retired”, or as he prefers a “redeployed” pastor as of March, 2012. He and his wife, Lily, moved to Monterey from Chicago and joined CPC shortly thereafter. Along with the Grays they helped start The Gathering that meets on Sundays at 11am. This is Greg’s second 3-year term as an elder. He has chaired the Vision and Disciple Making Committee and for the last two years chaired the Personnel Committee of Session. He gets the greatest pleasure in forming small discipleship groups known as micro-groups that build the life of Jesus in us in order to impact all dimensions of life. He hopes to see these groups proliferate throughout CPC. Finally, Greg is Chairman of the Board of an international ministry called Global Discipleship Initiative whose goal is to Transform and Multiply Disciples through Micro Groups. This is one of CPC’s supported missions.

JOHN SCHERER

John was born and raised in Wisconsin. He served 30 years in the USAF from 1971-2001. John graduated from the USAF Academy in 1975. A command pilot, he flew worldwide missions in the C-5. He and his first wife, Janis, served throughout the United States. They were members of Presbyterian, Christian and Missionary Alliance and Baptist Churches over those years. Moving to Wisconsin after the Air Force, John was General Manager of a Dairy Distribution Company. While in Wisconsin, he was an Elder for three different terms at The DELAVAN Christian Reformed Church. His first wife Janis died in June 2017. He and Ann Rondeau have been married since August 31, 2019. Ann is the president of The Naval Postgraduate School. John volunteers at Yellow Brick Road and serves on their board. He's also active in Rotary and still flies regularly in his twin brother's airplane. He has three adult children and two grandchildren.

Candidates for Deacon (Class of 2025)

LINDA BELL

Linda and her husband Matt have been members of CPC shortly before they married (at CPC) since 1986. They have been blessed with 3 wonderful adult children. She has been involved in the church nursery, small groups, served as a Deacon, is part of the Monterey Young Life Committee, and has served in numerous other ways over the past 36 years.

JINNY MEYERS

Jinny was born and raised on the Monterey Peninsula. She has been a Christian her entire adult life. She has been attending CPC since 2017 and became a Covenant Partner in 2019. Jinny finds joy in serving others. One of the highlights of her week is serving breakfast to the homeless on Saturday mornings. She holds a Master's Degree in Social Work and is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. Jinny has participated in various CPC seminars to include Ravi Zacharias, Financial Peace University, Women's Retreat and weekly Bible Study classes. She is excited about the opportunity God has given her to serve as a Deacon.

STEVE MYRICK

Stephen and his wife Linda have been married 47 years. They began attending CPC in 1995 and have two sons who grew up attending the youth programs at CPC. Steve grew up in Carmel and Monterey and attended the Church of the Nazarene from an early age. Knowing the Lord and serving Him has been an awesome journey! Since becoming a part of the CPC family Steve has been involved in Men's Ministry, Alpha Group, Stephen Ministry, served as an elder for six years, served on the Missions Committee for eight years, served on the nominating committee and has participated in several small groups. After operating a camera store/photo lab in Monterey for almost forty years he is currently taking care of a long-neglected honey-do list and enjoying watching his Granddaughter Aiyla (4) grow up.

Candidates for Nominating Committee

LANCE ALEXANDER

Born in Jamaica, I migrated as a 13-year-old with my family to NYC in 1968, eventually came to Monterey in 2011, and have been a member at CPC since 2012. I've been privileged to serve in various capacities in ministry over the years including teaching at Sunday school, singing with church choirs, working in short-term overseas medical missions, and serving elsewhere as elder in charge of adult Christian education and, here, as a deacon. I've enjoyed a lengthy and varied career in Neurology, and am currently a Staff Neurologist with Montage Medical Group and Consultant Neurologist at CHOMP. I'm also a very active godfather and mentor to 4 young people.

SCOTT HULME (Returning)

Scott grew up in southern California. After graduate school in Los Angeles, where he met his wife Liz, Scott began his career in tax consulting. After moving to Fresno, he was involved in agriculture, investing/trading, home building, and baseball. Scott was very involved at First Presbyterian Fresno where he served as clerk, elder, college advisor, and other roles. Scott and Liz moved to the Monterey Peninsula 15 years ago, where Carmel Pres has been their church home. He has been involved in various small groups, committees, and other roles (senior bus driver!). Scott and Liz have 3 grown children with their first grandchild due in October.

JANET ICHINOSE

Janet Ichinose and her husband Elliot have been attending CPC during their annual visits to Carmel for over 30 years and on a regular basis since 2014. Janet accepted Christ at 10 years old, and was blessed to be taught at a young age to study God's word, pray and trust God. Janet is a marketing consultant, previously led a Bible-based health ministry in SoCal, participates in various small groups at CPC, and with Elliot feels called to our church and its ministry.

AMY SPENCER (Returning)

Amy and her husband, Bob, began attending CPC in 2001. She enjoys being part of her women's small group, and has led all-girls and co-ed high school small groups for many years. In addition, she has been a leader for various student ministry trips over the years, including houseboats, backpacking, and a church-planting trip to Argentina. She also served on the Pastor Nominating Committee. Amy has been a middle school history teacher at Stevenson School for the past 20 years.

KYLE STRUTNER (Returning)

Kyle grew up attending CPC youth programs including the middle and high school youth groups, and came full-circle as the youth ministries summer intern in 2011. Kyle returned full-time to Carmel Presbyterian Church in 2013 after graduating from Westmont College in Santa Barbara. Since that time, he has led high school Bible study groups, served on the Pastor Nominating Committee, and plays guitar regularly in the contemporary worship band. Kyle works in property management and lives in Carmel with his wife, Erica, and their son, Leo.
